

8th – 12th of June, 2020.

English

- New poem book - Read poem ' I Eat My Peas with Honey' , page 38 of poem book- Which words sound the same? Can you name other words that might sound similar to words in the poem? Are there any tricky words in the rhyme?
- Ronald the Rhino eBook- This book is lovely with lots of rhyming. Ask your daughter to find some of the rhyming words and to summarise the story at the end.
- Write name in cursive writing.
- Revise all Jolly Phonics sounds on video linked on class page.

Irish

- Please continue to watch one program a day on TG4/ Cúla4 to ensure the girls are listening to Irish daily- <https://www.cula4.com/en/>

Maths

- Please continue counting activities.
- Number formation- Please practice writing number 1-5.

Science & Geography

- Read about Rhinos. There is a button that will bring you to the Dublin zoo page. Scroll to the very end for quick and easy facts under the heading 'Frequently asked questions'. I have also linked a video of a baby rhino that was born in Dublin zoo a few years ago.

Art

- Draw a picture of a Rhino from the story and name him or her. I have linked a video on the class page with steps on how to draw a rhino.

Physical Education- Please choose at least one a day 😊

- <https://www.gonoodle.com> - GoNoodle is a great free resource full of indoor workouts, dances & yoga, which are accompanied by animations or dancers.

Or / And

- 10@10 on RTEjr online- These are fun exercise videos (there is also an option to do them through Irish which is a fun way of getting some Irish into the day)- <https://rtejr.rte.ie/10at10/>

Or / And

- Cosmic kids yoga- this is another free website with a lot of different child friendly yoga lessons. The girls really enjoy this in school. <https://www.cosmickids.com/category/watch/>
